Required Initial Disclosures in Dissolution of Marriage

Parties to suits for divorce, annulment, or to declare marriage void must give the other party this information, as required by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 194.2.

Keep a completed copy of this form for yourself. Attach the documents (like bank statements) that are required. You can attach additional pages on separate sheets of paper if you need more space for listing information.

You must give this information to your spouse no later than 30 days after either party files an answer, waiver of service, or counter-petition with the court clerk. You and the other party may agree in writing to waive the initial disclosures. Forms to waive initial disclosures by Rule 11 Agreement are available at TexasLawHelp.org.

If a question does not apply to your case, write "N/A," "none," or leave it blank. For example, if you have no property to list in a particular category, write "none."
